KATE THE GREAT

Hello,

my name is Kate, I'm an adventurous and enthusiastic girl, who runs a travel and food blog elysianmoment.com. I was born in Russia, finished high school in Germany, studied in Austria, worked in Australia&New Zealand, lived in Belgium.. I've been traveling around, having the lifestyle of a nomad, which explains my affinity for traveling.

I discovered my passion for literature when I was a teenager but my studies of journalism and science of communication emphasized my deep interest for writing and social media.
